

MEXICANS FIND LOST U. S. ARMY AIRMEN

REPORT MEN ON WAY TO BOUNDARY

Mexicans Say They Are Escorting Aviators to Line

EL CENTRO, Calif., Aug. 26.—Mexican cavalry under the command of Captain Trujillo today were reported to be escorting to the international boundary Lieutenant Frederick Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly, American aviators who have been missing from Rockwell Field since last Wednesday.

Captain Trujillo reported to Col. Hipolito Baranca, chief of the military forces of Lower California, who has directed a search for the men for the past few days that he had found them alive in Lower California about two hundred miles southeast of San Diego, Calif. The country where the men were found is mountainous and inaccessible.

The place where the aviators were reported found is 300 miles south of the international line.

Send Three Ships to Aid.

Santa Cruz, Calif., Aug. 26.—Three ships of the new Pacific fleet, the old cruiser Machias, the submarine chaser 306 and the tug Challenge have been ordered from San Diego to Lower California to aid in the search for the lost army aviators Lieutenants F. G. Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly. Admiral Hugh Rodman announced here today.

PRESIDENT'S TRIP 'MORE IMMINENT'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—President Wilson's proposed trip to the Pacific coast in the interest of the peace treaty is "more imminent than it has been for the past few weeks" in view of administration officials.

As between going to New York to meet General Pershing or reviewing the first division in Washington as the case may be and going before the country it was said by persons close to the president today that he would consider the speech making tour of more importance.

Secretary Tumulty was expected tonight or tomorrow to discuss with the president the feasibility of making "the swing around the circle" even at the expense of being unable to greet General Pershing or to review the First Division. It is considered probable that the president will decide to leave Washington in time to review the Pacific fleet at San Francisco in September.

AGREE ON PROGRAM FOR REST OF SESSION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—House Republicans, meeting in a party conference tonight agreed that the legislative program for the remainder of the special session should, if possible include reorganization, adoption of policies for operating the merchant marine and reorganizing the army and the enactment of measures for retirement of civil service employees and for the rehabilitation of industrial cripples.

No formal program was drafted but the leaders in speeches urged action on these measures.

Opposition to the Mondell bill carrying out Secretary Lane's plan for farms for soldiers and sailors, developed after Representative Scott of Michigan had proposed that its consideration be deferred until after the November convention of the American Legion at Minneapolis.

THREATEN TO OUTLAW PITTSBURGH LOCAL

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 26.—Unless striking street car men in Pittsburgh return to work immediately the Pittsburgh Local of the Amalgamated Association of Electric Railway employees of America will be permanently outlawed, the executive board announced after a meeting today. The men struck twelve days ago in violation of an agreement with the operating receivers of the Pittsburgh Railway Company and the war labor board. Temporary suspension of the local was announced recently.

MAN SHOT IN SALOON BATTLE DIES

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Anthony Kelly, a foreman employed by Wilson and Co., at the stock yards, shot in the saloon battle in which Policeman Morgan Donohue was killed last night, died today, the second victim of the fight which started because it was believed Donohue was a prohibition "snorter." Kelly was shot by Policeman Patrick Donegan Donohue's partner.

Yardmen Go On Strike On Pacific Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Aug. 26.—Yardmen employed here by the Southern Pacific Railroad company went on strike today.

Individual strikers as they gathered for a meeting tonight declared they had left their work in sympathy with the striking employees of the Pacific electric company at Los Angeles and that their action was taken without the sanction of the international brotherhood officials.

They said more than 1,000 men in the San Francisco yards had quit.

Railroad administration officials announced tonight that as a result of the strike of yardmen no trains would be moved from here tomorrow unless conditions changed.

Men Out at Oakland.

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 26.—Yardmen of the Southern Pacific here began leaving their work shortly before 8 o'clock tonight. Whether their action is connected with the strike in San Francisco was not known when the men walked out.

Discontinue Passenger Trains.

Needles, Calif., Aug. 26.—All passenger train service on the Santa Fe west of Albuquerque, N. M., has been discontinued indefinitely, according to orders received today.

Prospect Not Encouraging.

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 26.—Prospects for ending the trainmen strike which has tied up railroad traffic between Fresno, Calif., and Yuma, Ariz., were not encouraging tonight, according to announcement by railroad officials.

Officials and employees of the Pacific electric lines, a strike which precipitated sympathetic strikes on the three steam lines reaching here issued statements today refusing to concede from their original positions.

Hines Appeals to Men.

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 26.—Director General Hines tonight appealed to members of the four railroad brotherhoods whose strike virtually paralyzed steam transportation in Southern California, to return to work.

The appeal was made in a statement given out here, in which the director general declared the government was powerless to act in the dispute between the Pacific electric lines and their employers, out of which the strike of steam employees grew.

GOMPERS RETURNS FROM EUROPE

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Declining to discuss current labor problems in detail on the ground that he had not had time to familiarize himself with them during his absence abroad, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who arrived from France today, said he wished to make plain that he did not come home to interfere with the program of labor but to help "my fellow laborers."

Mr. Gompers, who has been attending the international trades union congress at Amsterdam declared "the employees of labor have not yet learned that the time has come when they are complete monarchs of all they survey."

"Certainly," he added, "men and women who work must have a voice in determining conditions under which they shall work. The labor leader begged to be excused from commenting on the president's statement on the merits of the railroad shopmen's demands, the Plumb plan for the nationalization of railroads and the proposed steel workers strike. He admitted that urgent telegrams from Washington, whose source he would not divulge—prompted him to hasten home.

REPORT OPTIMISM PREVAILS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Monday, Aug. 25.—By The Associated Press.—A party of American business men which has returned to Berlin after a tour of Germany reports a distinct note of optimism prevailing among the Germans they met over the prospects of an early economic revival for the country. The Americans, themselves, who are representatives of varied interests engaged in a post-war inventory of the buying and selling capacity of Germany, expressed the belief that the country was fully able to satisfy the reasonable demands of credit security.

POLES CONTINUE TO FLEE

Kattowitz, Silesia, Monday, Aug. 25.—The Polish mining population of Upper Silesia continues to flee over the Polish border, to avoid being involved in shooting frays. The search for arms is being carried on by the Upper Silesian authorities with some success, the many difficulties are encountered in scouring the woods for hiding places and searching hostile Polish quarters.

VOTE AGAIN TO CHANGE PEACE PACT

Would Prevent U. S. Representation on Commissions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Provision for American representation on a score of international commissions to carry out details of the peace settlement would be stricken out of the peace treaty under an amendment adopted today by the senate foreign relations committee.

Raises Heated Debate

Later in the senate the committee's decision to amend the Shantung section raised a whirlwind of debate with Senator McCumber, North Dakota, bitterly attacking it and Senator Borah, Idaho defending it. Both are Republican members of the committee.

Later in the day Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the Democratic leader, talked over the possibilities of the situation with President Wilson and predicted afterward that all amendments would be defeated eventually and that the treaty would be ratified during September.

In its decision regarding American participation in the reconstruction commissions, the committee divided on party lines, the nine Republicans standing as a unit for the amendment and the seven Democrats voting against it.

Make One Exception

Altho the committee's action would change the language of the treaty in more than fifty places, an exception was made of Germany's indemnity bill. Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, who presented the amendment, said he had not proposed taking the American representative from this commission because he felt American interests might be directly involved.

In the commissions which are affected by the amendment, Mr. Fall said, American interest would be so indirect as not to compensate for the dangers of becoming hopelessly involved in European affairs.

Among these commissions are the bodies set up to rectify the belligerency between Belgium and Germany, to establish the free city of Danzig, to supervise numerous plebiscites and to take care of various other details under the treaty.

Omits League Commissions

The amendment also omits reference to the commissions that are to be appointed by the league of nations, committee members saying that should be dealt with after the league covenant.

Senator McCumber declared the committee majority really intended the Shantung amendment to drive a "poisoned blade" into the treaty with the purpose of killing the league of nations.

He asserted that the change which would give to China instead of Japan the old German rights in Shantung province was a blow to China because it could accomplish no result but to drive Japan free to pursue a course of spoliation against Chinese territory.

Senator Borah replied that China had nothing to hope for under the league because the same powers which will control its decisions already had decided her case in favor of Japan. He reviewed the history of Japanese diplomacy in the east and said all the facts argued against Japan's keeping her promise to return Shantung to China.

Senator Fall to Reply.

In the debate which developed over the amendment, Senator McCumber, and Senator Fall announced he would reply to the North Dakota senator tomorrow.

Republican

It is assured of senate acceptance, but after his conference today, Senator Hitchcock declared it would be beaten decisively, and that there would be a dozen Republican votes against it.

The president, Senator Hitchcock said, seemed well pleased with the senate situation and was confident the treaty would be ratified without any amendments or reservations.

HOLD RAM SALE

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 26.—The fourth annual ram sale held under the auspices of the National Wool Growers' association, opened here today. The principal sale of a ram from the herd of Bullard Brothers of Woodland, Calif., which was sold to Charles Kimball of Hanford, California for $1,450.

Rail Shopmen To Vote At Once On Wilson's Proposal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Railroad shopmen in the United States will begin voting immediately on whether they will accept the wage proposals made yesterday by President Wilson and Director General Hines or strike to enforce their demands for a general advance in pay.

Probable Action Not Disclosed.

On the outcome of the balloting hinges industrial peace on the government controlled railroads. If the 500,000 shopmen accede to President Wilson's decision that there shall be no general wage advances until the government shows what can be done to control the rising cost of living, sufficient time to effect some change in the price levels probably will elapse before the unions present their demands for more money. What action the government may be expected to take in the event of a vote to strike for an immediate wage increase which President Wilson has said would have a disastrous effect on efforts to bring down prices, has not been disclosed.

Indicative of the determination of Director General Hines and the railroad administration to deal fairly with all classes of employees, the director general today, instructed the board of railway wages to consider promptly any demands that might be made and to report recommendations for correcting any inequalities found to exist, the general advances for any class will not be made until it has been proved that the present level of prices is permanent. In that case both President Wilson and Mr. Hines have given assurance that railway workers would receive early re-adjustment of their wages.

May Complete Vote Early.

The taking of a strike vote ordinarily requires about three weeks. In the present instance, however, it is believed the vote may be completed earlier. Announcing they had refused the proposal of the director general the committee of 100 representing the shopmen made public a letter sent to the various locals calling for a strike vote. The committee was in session several hours today the debate becoming bitter at times, it was said, the more radical of the members demanding a strike to compel more money.

In the letter, however, was seen a suggestion that some of the committees were inclined to give the government a chance to make good in the campaign against high prices.

Asking "serious consideration" of the question the committee told the unions that any additional general increase in the wages of railway employees would include the shopmen and they were told not to forget that a strike now meant that the shopmen were striking alone to force an increase for the entire 2,000,000 railroad employees. Strike benefits it was said would not be paid beyond the limit of funds now available.

ENTER ON PROBE OF COAL PRICES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Entering on an investigation of the increased price of coal, a senate interstate commerce sub-committee today brought forth testimony that a shortage of cars and labor difficulties were hindering coal production, that certain elements in the miners' union were intent on nationalization of the coal mines with adoption of a six hour day and a five day week plus a wage increase and that unless problems of production were solved the country would be brought face to face with a coal famine in the coming winter. So emphatic were the witnesses that the railroads were at the bottom of the present low production that Senator Frelinghuysen, chairman of the committee indicated the committee's intention of bringing Director General Hines into the hearing.

GENERAL DICKMAN DENIES REPORT

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 26.—Major General Joseph T. Dickman, southern department commander today denied the report from Candelaria that the punitive expedition had been deterred from continuing the pursuit of Mexican bandits by the presence of Carranza troops near Coyame, Chihuahua.

The expedition was withdrawn because the trails picked up by the forces ceased to be "hot" he said. No fear of a clash with Mexican troops caused the decision to bring the expedition out of Mexico.

SEEK TO PREVENT TRUCKS' DESTRUCTION

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Application for an injunction to prevent the authorities of Zion City, Ill., from destroying nineteen motor trucks seized there on charges that they were carrying beer from Wisconsin brewers to Chicago saloonkeepers was filed today in the federal district court. Attorney George Remus went to Madison, Wis., tonight to try to induce Judge Joseph Sanborn to hear this petition Thursday.

The petition named Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church in Zion, as one of the defendants.

KING TO START FOR U. S. SEPT. 22

Brussels, Aug. 26.—The Soli says it learns that King Albert and Queen Elizabeth will leave for the United States Sept. 22 and that they will stay there one month. At the American embassy it was said that the date of the departure of the king and queen for America had not been made known.

WANT HIGHER WAGES

Honolulu, T. H., Aug. 19.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Higher wages and shorter hours are wanted by more than 10,000 Filipinos employed on the sugar plantations of Hawaii, but they will not strike to enforce their demands, according to officials of the Filipino Mid-Pacific Laborers' association.

ARMY TO OPEN STORES; WILL SELL CLOTHING

Will Dispose of Many Surplus Household Commodities

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Further steps to bring down soaring prices were taken today by the government, the war department announcing plans for opening retail stores in several cities through which surplus household commodities and clothing will be made available for consumers.

Congressional committees continued consideration of legislation designed to reduce the high cost of living including amendments to the food control act to punish profiteering and hoarding; bills to regulate cold storage and appropriations for the federal trade commission to investigate stocks and give information to the public.

Thru the war department's retail stores the army's large surplus stocks of socks, underwear, shirts, rain coats, blankets, gloves, tobacco, soap and other household commodities will be sold. The stocks will be made available to persons not living in the larger cities where the stores will be located thru the parcel post.

Preparing Price Lists.

Price lists are being prepared and these will be furnished to all postoffices for the convenience of the public. It is expected that the prices will be considerably below the prevailing market.

Present plans are to open stores in the fourteen zone supply centers and it is expected that in those sections of the country in which large areas are embraced in zone boundaries, additional cities will be selected as sale centers.

Amendments to the war time food control bill recommended by Attorney General Palmer were reported to the senate by the agriculture committee tonight. Two new amendments were offered by the committee one offered by Senator Smith legalizing the organization of fair price committees and another by Senator Harrison for reasonable regulation of rents in the District of Columbia.

Hears Dr. Wiley

In considering legislation for regulating cold storage, the house agriculture committee heard Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, formerly chief of the bureau of chemistry. He said shortage of products should not be uniform but should depend on the food stored. Fish and eggs, he said, could not be stored without material deterioration while meats and other foods were improved by storage.

TO GIVE DECISION IN ACTORS' CASE TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A decision as to whether the hearing of the injunction petition against striking actors will be transferred to New York temporarily, will be made by Master in Chancery Zeisler tomorrow. It was announced today following the afternoon adjournment.

Levy Mayer, attorney for the managers, stated that it was necessary for him to have the testimony of A. H. Woods and other managers who live in New York before he would be able to conclude the manager's side of the case. The injunction is being asked against "Up in Mabel's Room" company, a Woods production.

SAYS COMMISSION REPORTS ARE USELESS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Federal trade commission reports on the five large packers and their alleged control of the industry are absolutely useless as a basis for passing legislation, L. D. H. Weld, representative of Swift & Co., told the senate agriculture committee today. Summing up his two day argument against federal regulation of the industry as proposed in the Kenyon and Kendrick bills he challenged the truth of the commission's findings in a half dozen particulars and ended by assailing the commission.

GIVE PLANS CONSIDERATION

Washington, Aug. 26.—Plans for the withdrawal of drafted men with the Siberian expedition is receiving his earnest and sympathetic consideration, President Wilson today wrote Fred McEwen, Chicago, president of the 27th and 31st infantry auxiliary. The organization is composed of the men's friends and relatives who are making an effort to have them returned.

France May Not Ratify Treaty Until Sept. 6

PARIS, Aug. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The result of the first day's debate on the ratification of the peace treaty by the French chamber of deputies caused optimistic forecasts of prompt ratification to vanish.

Only three speakers of the thirty-one scheduled to address the chamber were heard. Deputies Chaperdelaine, Raiberti and Fourrier, each of whom spoke for more than an hour. If the present speed continues the treaty will not be ratified before Sept. 6 and perhaps later. The government seemed anxious to hurry the proceedings. Interpellations on Hungarian affairs and the high cost of living were postponed until the treaty has been ratified.

Premier Clemenceau and all the ministers remained on the bench throughout the session.

Belgium Approves Pact

BRUSSELS, Aug. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Belgian senate today unanimously approved the peace treaty with Germany. The chamber of deputies ratified the treaty August 8th.

GARY DECLINES TO MEET MEN'S AGENTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States steel corporation declined today to meet personally John Fitzpatrick and other representatives of the American Federation of Labor who constitute a committee appointed to organize the workers in the iron and steel industry.

Mr. Gary's refusal to see the committee was the first definite development in the controversy which may result in a strike of workers to enforce union recognition and better working conditions.

The effort to arrange a conference with Mr. Gary came shortly after the hurried return from Europe of Samuel Gompers who announced before he said that his presence home was more imperative than abroad. It had been expected he would attend the conference with Mr. Gary if one were arranged. The president of the Federation of Labor made no comment on his return of the situation in the iron and steel industry.

ENGLAND DECLINES TO REMOVE RESTRICTIONS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—England alone of the great European nations has declined, for the present at least, to remove restrictions on admission of persons under foreign passports imposed during the war for the purpose of excluding political agitators, persons of doubtful loyalty and other undesirable.

This was developed today by inquiry as to why Great Britain was not included in the list of countries to which the state department has announced passports will be granted on pre-war conditions after Sept. 15.

FORECAST ACQUITTAL OF SIX NEGRO TROOPS

CAMP GRANT, Ill., Aug. 26.—Acquittal of six of the fourteen Camp Grant negro soldiers, charged with assaulting a white woman here in May, 1918, was indicated today by the release from arrest of half a dozen of the defendants.

BEGIN PROBE OF CHICAGO BREWERIES

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—District Attorney Charles F. Clynne and representatives of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice today began an investigation of charges that 15 Chicago breweries have been manufacturing beer containing more than one-half of one per cent alcohol since July 1 in violation of the war-time prohibition law.

SEIZE CAR OF SUGAR

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Federal officials today seized a car load of sugar, amounting to 16,000 pounds, owned by T. N. Catrevas, a Chicago commission dealer. The sugar it is said has been kept stored in the car since August 7, and was seized as hoarded food.

FOUR HUNDRED RETURN TO WORK

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 26.—Four hundred of the 2,000 striking employees of the Standard Steel Car Co., have returned to work and officials of the plant express the view that the backbone of the strike is broken.

ONE DEAD; 2 HURT IN MINE FIGHT

Boy Killed in Springfield—Threaten to Revoke Charters

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 26.—One killed and two wounded constituted today's early developments in the strike of miners who are rebelling against fines imposed by operators.

Boy Killed Instantly

Elmer Ghlardi, aged 13, was shot and instantly killed and two men, said to be strikers, were hit by bullets when Pleasant German, a negro, engaged in a revolver battle with a crowd of pickets who were established near the Jones and Adams mines here. German, a coal miner, was on his way to work when the crowd of insurgent miners began throwing stones at him. He drew a revolver and fired, then ran but was overtaken and placed under arrest by deputy sheriffs. The two wounded miners were taken to a hospital.

Only Few Miners Working

Only a few mines were working in the Springfield sub-district today and the insurgent factions in most of the locals planned meetings for this afternoon to name local policy committees. A conference of the state policy committee members has been called for tomorrow in this city. While President Frank Farington and other officials of the recognized miners' organization were still in conference with operators at Chicago it was stated at their headquarters that the rebellion had not spread beyond the territory affected by the first strike which began about three weeks ago. This embraced the Springfield, Peoria and Belleville sub-districts.

Threaten to Revoke Charters

Orders telegraphed today from state miners' headquarters to secretaries of all coal mine locals in Illinois said charters of all locals which persisted in the present strike on or after Saturday, August 30, would be revoked. Decision to expel recalcitrant locals, it was said, came at a meeting of the executive board of the Illinois district in Chicago, acting on authority granted by the international organization.

The orders, sent here for relay from Chicago and were signed by Walter Nesbitt, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois miners union.

For the most part the strikes are confined to central Illinois fields, reports show. They followed action of operators in imposing fines in accordance with the Washington agreement.

To Use Troops If Needed

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Governor Lowden tonight said he had been advised that Adjutant General Wickson was in conference tonight with officials at Springfield in connection with the strike of miners and that should the adjutant general advise the use of the militia, the state troops would be called out at once. Downstate companies would be used.

ONLY TWO REMAIN UNACCOUNTED FOR

Total casualties now are placed at 291,732 with 77,422 deaths from all causes.

SUGGESTS APPROPRIATE ARMISTICE MEMORIAL

The national organization of women has started the movement to have November 11, "Armistice Day," observed everywhere by community singing. It is proposed simultaneously at the hour of the hour of 11 o'clock on Armistice day that men, women and children in all parts of the U. S. shall join in this mass singing in the songs of thanksgiving. No more fitting or impressive observance of the day could be planned.

GOMPERS CAN HELP.

Samuel Gompers has just returned to the U. S. and certainly his coming is opportune, just at the time that a cloud of industrial strife is on the horizon. It is already a cloud larger "than a man's hands" and is growing more threatening with each passing day. Let us hope that Mr. Gompers' influence will be sufficient to prevent any further developments which are detrimental to the interests of labor or the public at large.

cently strong to prevent any developments which are detrimental to the interests of labor or the public at large.

THE JEWELRY DEMAND.

While there are strikes and rumors of strikes, still the American Retail Jewelers association declares that the jewelry business of the country was never so prosperous. High wages, especially in the big industrial centers, have given a momentum to the jewelry trade never before known. This is true also of many luxuries. There may be more to the high cost of living than the prices of necessities.

THE HOUSING PROBLEM.

If the demand for houses in Jacksonville keeps on in its present activity it may be necessary to form some sort of a corporation to promote building and thus solve the housing problem. This plan was followed out in South Bend, Ind., where the demand for houses became so acute that the labor situation was interfered with. There a $500,000 corporation was organized for the purpose of taking over second mortgages on residence properties and in this way enabling many people of comparatively small means to build them homes.

We haven't a large industrial population here in Jacksonville but even without such condition it is getting more difficult every day to find a house to rent, and many of the recent sales have come about for the reason that the purchasers have not been able to find rental property.

THE PEAK OF PRICES.

It is only the last year or two that people became generally familiar with the term "peak load." It is a phrase used largely with reference to utility companies as indicating the busiest hour or the time when the greatest amount of electric current is generated. So much has been said about utilities in these recent years that "peak" has become quite a familiar word.

So when President Wilson uses it with the pleasant prophesy that he believes the peak of high prices has been passed, people understand what he is talking about. It is not always that everybody hopes the president has spoken right, but in this case it will be an unanimous hope—unless perhaps there are just a few dissenting profiteers.

SUGGESTS THAT WOMEN VOTE OR STRIKE.

Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, has made the potent suggestion that when the railway men submit the question of a strike to a vote that the wives of the men be allowed opportunity to cast ballots. "They are the most affected," said this railroad executive, "and there is a great deal of truth in the statement. The privations that sometimes result from industrial strife usually affect the families of striking men in a more personal way than they do the strikers themselves, not in the same way but from like cause."

Mr. Elliott also gave testimony that even if no wage increases are given or higher material costs prevail that 25 per cent increase in freight rates will be necessary to keep the railroad going if they are turned back soon to private control.

SEES LOWDEN AS FORMIDABLE CANDIDATE.

That Governor Lowden has already become a formidable candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency next year is shown by the favorable comment that is being made about him by newspapers in all parts of the country. For instance, the Boston Transcript quotes the Washington Post, which in turn quotes a prominent Minnesota citizen in reference to Governor Lowden and the presidency.

Duncan Older, of Minneapolis, is quoted by the Post as follows: "In Minnesota the opinion prevails that it is Governor Frank O. Lowden against the field for the Republican presidential nomination, and there are astute politicians who are beginning to believe that the Illinois governor will poll enough strength to win on the first ballot. There is also a good chance for Governor Lowden to win in the election, the eastern Republicans need to be warned against over-confidence. . . . He has made a wonderful record as governor of our third most populous state. He has served in congress and will find it easy to work with that body. Lowden is big enough for the job and there is a most excellent chance for him to move into the White House on March 4 1921."—Bloomington Pantagraph.

TAKING A SANE VIEW.

Certainly in these times of unrest when there are demands for higher wages and lower living costs, when one group of men demands restraint of the packers to prevent high prices, and another group declares that these same men are instrumental in keeping prices from mounting higher, certainly the time is at hand for a sane consideration of the big question. That is certainly the view of the vice president of the First National bank of St. Louis who has recently made a personal investigation of conditions in fourteen large cities.

This investigator declares that the outcry against profiteering is natural but says too that if all the profiteers were jailed and all the storage houses were empty and the whole of the government food distributed, that only temporary relief would be afforded. The high living causes are complex, he says, and no simple procedure will bring permanent benefit. As he sees it, the direct cause of these conditions is found in the war period, with its great production along some lines and the vast destruction of materials and supplies. With a long course of reasoning the banker goes on to show that people must not expect quick relief thru radical personal action or thru radical legislation, that before-the-war conditions may never return. And certainly conditions approaching normal can only be reached in a gradual way after the people come to understand that they must work together to restore conditions, and must be willing to make mutual concessions.

As so many other students of economic questions, he is saying, he declares too that greater production must be one of the factors in bringing about the desired solution.

THE AMERICAN BUFFALO

For a time it looked as if the buffalo were destined to vanish from America. The few roaming wild were growing fewer year by year, and the small herds in captivity were decreasing. Then the government took the matter in hand and made a deliberate effort to save the species from extermination.

The first buffalo census was taken in 1889, and at that time only about 500 of the animals were discoverable in the United States. Now happily, the number is more than 3,000. About two-thirds of these are owned by individuals, but the government owns eight herds, six of them under the direct control of the department of agriculture. The largest of the eight is that one in Yellowstone Park which contains about 450 buffalo. The Smithsonian institute has a herd of 18 at Washington, D. C.

Recently provision has been made for lending government animals to municipalities or institutions, or exchanging them. This is because of a surplus of males in some of the government herds. It is hoped that the loan or exchange may result in a greater increase in numbers in the next few years.

Without American bison our plains could hardly have been traversed, our west won. Not only is a debt due this race, so wastefully handled for so many years, but by preserving it one of the most interesting monuments is kept for posterity. The commercial possibilities in large herds of buffalo are enormous, needless to say, so that there is every reason in the world both of business and sentiment why our native bison should be preserved.

W. F. Quibling of Cincinnati, in another column of this edition urges Jacksonville to take advantage of the government's offer and secure one of these fine animals for the Nichols Park zoo. This is a matter which would be strictly up to the members of the park board and it is to be hoped that some action relative to the securing of such an addition to the park zoo will be taken.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

AN OLD TRUTH

When I'd impart a moral lesson I spring it many times; and so there's sameness, I'm confessin', in these uplifting rhymes. The same old tale must be repeated in lilt and catch and rune, or my intent would be defeated, for men forget so soon. These repetitions will not hurt you if they should call to mind some good old time substantial virtue that you have left behind. It seems to me all men are wasting their coin they all unload; with merry steps I see them hastening along the poor-house road. A year or two, when war was raging, we saluted wealth away; and talked, with faces worn and aging, about the rainy day. But when the beastly war was over, with all its stress and din, we kicked around like mules in clover, and blew our money in. And ever harder we are blowing our little shining store; we laugh like clumps to see it going, and then blow in some more. And people say that I am raving, and should take in my sign, when I insist on weekly saving, on putting coin in mine. We're spending cash like drunken sailors, our orgy's a disgrace; and some day we shall all be wallers down at the wailing place. Now is the time, while money's plenty, to make your assets thrive; and out of every hard-earned twenty you ought to save a five.

MORGAN COUNTY FARM TOPICS

Silo Filling Time

Some silo filling work is in progress in this county. In some counties farther south silos were filled two weeks ago, a date earlier than usual because the dry weather had caused the corn to fire. This has been another year to test the different theories as to the best cultivation plan for corn. There have always been some advocates of deep cultivation and other farmers have argued that shallow cultivation has brought the best results. The farm advisers of Morgan county recently made the statement that the condition of corn where shallow plowing had been followed amply proved the superiority of that method, especially for a season of the 1919 kind.

Will Specialize in Hogs.

Not long since Finley Barrel, who has owned a magnificent estate on Moscow Bay near Bath, disposed of the property for a small sum by comparison with what it originally cost him. Now some special agricultural and animal husbandry work will be done there by Prof. Mumford of the state agricultural college, and Frank D. Baldwin, who resigned his position as adviser in Morgan county in order to engage in this new work. They are to devote special attention to the raising of hogs.

Spring Wheat

The last of the spring wheat threshing in Morgan county has been done and about the highest yield made is 7 bushels to the acre. However, the conditions for the crop were not much worse in this county than in the rest of the state, for state crop reports recently published show that spring wheat was in 58 per cent of normal condition by comparison with 57 per cent a month earlier.

The weather conditions were just absolutely wrong for spring wheat, with the result that the heads were small and the kernels shriveled. The fact is that there were many fields in Illinois so poor that the farmers did not go to the expense of a harvest.

More Alfalfa.

In riding thru the county these days one is impressed with the larger acreage of alfalfa which is being planted. It cannot be said that the acreage of the county is yet up to the most desirable point, but it is true that there are more farms on which at least some alfalfa is growing. The third cutting has been made in most fields and as under ordinary conditions it will be a number of weeks until frost comes, it is pretty safe to count on a fourth cutting for this year. The hay is selling at $25 a ton unbaled, direct from the field, and the farmer who has a good alfalfa patch has crop profits from it which will compare well with returns from wheat and corn.

Wheat Threshing.

Very little wheat remains unthreshed in the county except in cases where stacking was done. Yesterday the wheat on the farm of Bert Henry just south of Woodson was threshed and that practically completes the work so far as wheat is concerned in that locality. In most cases where threshing has not been done it has been the result of the fact that elevators were full and not able to accept the grain.

To Hog Down Corn.

J. E. Osborne and Albert Hayes will turn hogs into one of their corn fields near Murrayville this week. These stockmen have followed the "hogging down" plan for a number of years and have had very satisfactory results. They have other fields where the hogs will be turned in but as soy beans are planted in these fields they are giving the beans time to mature before the "hogging down" process begins.

"LAND IS CHEAPER NOW"

"Land may be high but it is cheaper now than ever before when the price of farm products is concerned." This was the statement made recently by a Morgan county land owner, and there is a lot of truth in this statement.

Before the big bulge in price of farm products came the average landowner was not getting more than three or four per cent return on his investment, and now the rate is very considerably higher. The only thing that bothers these land owners is trying to figure out just how long the present prices are to prevail.

A BIG FARM PROFIT

"Two hundred acres of farm land purchased eight years ago by Col. McNaughton, Joliet attorney, member of the firm of Barr, McNaughton & Barr, for $25,000, sold today for $72,000. The farm is located in Nauvau township, Kendall county, thirteen and one-half miles west of Joliet, in the best corn land in the vicinity. John Hecker of Kendall county was the purchaser."—Chicago Tribune.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLAR LAND

(Bloomington Pantagraph.) In consideration of several sales of farm lands in McLean county which have been made in the last few months at figures at and around $500 per acre, a well known real estate man with twenty years' experience in handling farm lands, was asked the other day his opinion as to the solidity of the deals made at that figure. He replied emphatically that $500 and in McLean county is a very conservative proposition and deals in good land made at the price cannot be classed as speculative or "lure," some in the past degree.

He figured it this way: If the value of the land is figured on the present prices of grain it would be classed as speculative, for war prices on grain are of course subject to shrinkage. But for a period of eleven years prior to the war corn could be sold as high as 75 cents per bushel at some time each season. That was not the average price during the whole season but if the farmer held his corn for the top price each year he could have realized as high as 75 cents for each of eleven years before the war.

Now under the increasing population and general growth of the country, it is not likely that grain prices are going to go down below the pre-war price; but on the contrary, it is safe to figure a permanent increase of perhaps one-third over pre-war prices. Therefore, $1 corn can be considered a safe and conservative figure for several years to come.

Therefore, with corn at $1 a bushel and other grains and produce in proportion, the land of this county should be worth $500 per acre. In fact, this real estate man argued, the prevailing price will be nearer $1,000 per acre within the lives of people now living. Therefore this real estate man figures that $500 land at the present time is not to be called a speculative proposition.

OPPORTUNITY FOR NICHOLS PARK ZOO TO SECURE BUFFALO FREE

Booster for Jacksonville, Living in Cincinnati Believes Animal Would Be Asset and Advertisement for City

W. F. Othling, branch office supervisor of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Cincinnati, O., is a booster for Jacksonville and has a great deal of interest for this city at heart judging from a letter received by the Journal from him yesterday. He believes that we should have a real, live Buffalo for the Nichols Park zoo. He encloses the following clipping from the Cincinnati Times-Star which shows how easy a matter it really would be to get such an animal for the Jacksonville park. The article is given herewith:

From Cincinnati Times-Star.
"If the Cincinnati zoo want a buffalo, now is the time to act. Provision is made in the 1920 agricultural appropriation act for the Secretary of Agriculture to give buffalo to municipalities and public institutions from any surplus which may exist in the herds now under control of the Department of Agriculture. It is announced that there is a surplus of bulls in some of the herds, particularly the one in the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve, Oklahoma, and that, as the government is now approaching realization of the first stage of its reservation program—the acquisition of at least 1,000 head of buffalo—applications from municipalities and public institutions—not from individuals—will soon be considered.

"According to the Department of Agriculture, there are approximately 7,000 buffalo in North America. Canada has about half of them. The United States has more than seven times the number that it had in 1889, when the first buffalo census was taken. Individuals own more than 2,000 of the total number in this country. There are eight government herds, six of them under the control of the department of agriculture. The largest, in charge of the Interior Department, is located in Yellowstone Park, and numbers about 450 bison. The Smithsonian Institute has a herd of about 18 at the National Zoological park in Cincinnati. The first herd under the Department of Agriculture was established in 1906 on the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve. The original herd consisted of 15 animals, the gift of the New York Zoological society. It has increased to more than 100."

Othling's letter to the Journal follows:

Cincinnati, O.,
Aug. 23-1919.
Editor, Journal,
Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Sir:
Please see the attached item clipped by the writer from the Cincinnati Times-Star.

Suggest that the Journal take this in hand and try to get a buffalo for Nichols Park.

While I do not live in Jacksonville, I am proud to say I have a sister that does. I am a booster for Jacksonville and believe if everybody in Jacksonville gets busy and backs up the Journal we ought to be able to get one of these buffalos.

As to the freight charges in bringing the buffalo to Jacksonville, I believe everybody in Jacksonville would be willing to contribute toward a fund to pay the freight.

Let us all get busy with the Congressmen and Senators of Illinois and get that buffalo.

We want that buffalo for Nichols Park.

If you are successful in securing the buffalo we ought to celebrate the event and christen the old boy.

Boosters and Knockers should all unite and land him.

Look at the advertising the town will get while making efforts to get this buffalo.

Boost you boosters, it can be done.

W. F. OTHLING,
Supervisor of Branches.
P. S. I'll be there at the christening.

What Is Your Economy?

There are scores of ways in which to beat the high cost of living. Every woman has one or more pet economies, especially since it has become so hard to make the income stretch over the necessities of life.

How do you outwit the H. C. L.? Do you bake your own bread and find it economical? Do you make over garments? Do you do something to make money in the hours you used to give to the Red Cross or other war work? Do you coax your garden into yielding a pretty fair share of the food for your table, both winter and summer? What preparations are you making to combat shortages of food-stuffs and other necessities, and high prices, during the coming winter?

The Journal would like to hear from its readers, both town and country, on this subject. The letters should contain stories of personal experience or thoughtful suggestions for easing the burden on the pocketbook. Write anything up to 200 or 300 words.

HUNDREDS ENJOY DAY AT NICHOLS PARK

Varied and Meritorious Program Draws Large Crowd Both Afternoon and Evening—Today Will Be Farmers' Club Day.

The good work of the Chautauqua was continued yesterday and with good results. Rev. W. E. Collins had the largest audience yet for his community sing and the way he raised the echoes with his impromptu choir would make any one sit up and listen. He is a born leader in general and of young people in particular and well knows how to get hold of them.

His talk was on "The Law of Good Sportsmanship" and he gave his audience some very wholesome truths couched in plain language easily understood. In the first place the true American plays fair. He doesn't play marbles for keeps and doesn't try to get ahead of his neighbor or playmates by foul means. He does his honest share of work at home and when mother calls for a little help there is not a snarl or a whine but cheerful compliance.

A dying man once told his boys if they would dig in the orchard somewhere they would find a pot of gold and they dug away with all their might but found no gold tho they had a far better crop of fruit so they kept on digging the crop and by the third year they found what their father meant; dig, cultivate, work and you will get the gold.

Don't cheat at school but be honest and get your lessons yourself and don't depend on some one else; don't expect to get something for nothing for you will fall in the long run. Treat your opponent with politeness and when you play group games play for the good of your side and not for your own glory. Wallace Mackenzie was a stalwart Canadian soldier in the great war and when he was with his company the word came to retreat. He said he didn't know that word and braced up the men on either side of him and the good cheer extended thru the whole command and the Huns were driven back.

One man was always whining and predicting defeat and his company was always whipped till finally they located the trouble and took him out and shot him. Mrs. Alice Sherry Houston then began her work and had for her topic and demonstration meat and cooking of less expensive cuts and gave some excellent advice to the ladies who wish to know practical economy with attractive menus.

This morning she will talk on cakes and show how they are made and in the afternoon she will have for her subject milk and eggs.

Afternoon Session

The first on the program yesterday afternoon were the Fiecht Alpine singers and yodelers and they proved most entertaining with their songs.

Dr. Stanley L. Krebs occupied the platform at the close of the concert and in an interesting and amusing way told his hearers many truths. He told how to banish worries and to keep cheerful. It is said of him that he carries his own scientific stove with him and in his lectures sits out that which is true and demonstrable from that which is untrue and fraudulent. His talks therefore are of peculiar, absorbing and real interest to everyone.

Evening Session

In the evening more songs were enjoyed from the Fiecht Alpine singers and yodelers. There was a large audience present in the evening.

Following the singers, Pitt Parker, the crayon artist, held the boards. His act is advertised as a crayon recital and artistic entertainment. It is said all American audiences like to "see things done" but are particularly interested in seeing things being done. The recognition of this fact, coupled with his intelligent application by the cartoonist, has enabled Parker to develop an exhibition of his art which does not in the least fall short of being phenomenal. Those at the big Chautauqua tent last night thoroughly enjoyed his drawings and his running fire of comment and witticisms.

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES

The gate keepers experience some trouble with people who have season tickets and are required to show them each time they enter. Mr. Dial says this is according to law; there are government officials hovering about and failure to require this of patrons may cause the gate keepers trouble.

The managers of the eating pavilion are doing a fine work and supplying excellent bills of fare, yet notwithstanding there are some who complain that the good ladies are profiteering. This is unjust and unkind toward persons who are honestly trying to satisfy the public. Their prices have not been advanced nearly so much as the cost of material. There has been complaint of the price of tea and coffee so the ladies have cut the price on these drinks to five cents a cup. Fried chicken will be on the bill of fare.

The children's playground is patronized quite liberally by the little folks many of whom are with camping families.

Don't Knock.
Altho the majority of patrons declare the list of attractions this year very good there are some who can't help knocking which is very poor taste. Of course the bill cannot please everybody every day but any candid, capable judge will pronounce it excellent. The music has been especially good and worthy of the highest praise and it seems incredible that any would criticize it. The other numbers have averaged well and while some have not been as good as others the whole bill shows up finely. Let's all boost; not knock.

George R. Fox who has been visiting on the grounds, has left for New York where are his sons Walter and Earl. The latter is on furlough and recovering from a recent operation.

J. M. Fox has by his tent a fine cluster of asters and hanging by its side two stalks of beans with a prodigious number of pods on them. He is a fine gardener.

Willie Megginson and wife of Galesburg are visiting their sister, Mrs. Carl Hambrough and Mrs. Charles Bealmer.

Some new signs are "Vaneers' Inn," "War Zone," "Jazz Inn." Several compliments on the good order Monday night were heard by the Journal reporter as he passed around.

Miss Mabel Gerhold of Kewanee is a visitor at the tent of Mrs. Emma Smith, No. 75.

Monday evening Mrs. Emma Smith, No. 75, instituted a new departure. As the weather was so cool she had an oyster supper which was much enjoyed.

George Thies and wife of Woodson precinct are visiting the tent of R. C. Megginson, No. 74.

Mrs. Rutherford and Mrs. Douglas have returned to their home in Iowa after a visit with the R. C. Megginson family.

Miss Helen Maddox of the "We're All Inn" tent went home yesterday to secure additional supplies.

A fudge party at "We're All Inn" last night was immensely enjoyed.

Mrs. Charles Hopper played for the Sunday school music Sunday morning and Miss Clara Ranson for the church services. Judging from the size of Robertine Ranson the writer thought she couldn't be more than four but yesterday she informed him she was six which recalled a remark of a child now a matronly lady, made in his hearing some years since. When asked her age she said: "Five; pretty near six." Wonder if Robertine will always be as careful to have her exact age known.

Percy Funk of Riggs is visiting at Spend-Sir's Inn.

Mrs. J. A. Carlson and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Norman Carlson of Murrayville and Mabel visited Daniel's Den yesterday.

J. F. Mulligan of Beardstown was a guest yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Crain.

Miss Olive Randall was a visitor yesterday with Miss Lucy Pyatt at No. 43.

Miss Ida Bell Corman of Frankford, Indiana, is visiting Miss Hazel Jones.

Miss Margaret Hines of Decatur is a guest at No. 23.

Misses Margaret Sandberg and Catherine Hines are visitors at No. 23 for a few days.

Dennis Hines of Chapin has been added to the list of campers.

Arthur Reeve has added the Wallace Cub tractor to the list of useful exhibits.

Miss Eleanor Morris of Hersman is visiting the Carter Inn.

Not all the W. R. C. and G. A. R. are registering. All are asked to do so at the tent west of the main pavilion. Among the W. R. C.'s are: Mrs. Anna Ferguson, Mrs. Anna I. McCormick, Mrs. Mary W. Taylor, Margaret Jefferson, Alice Scott, Margaret Wright. Veterans registering are: W. D. McCormack, Co. D, 145th Ill. Inf.; T. B. Orear, Co. K, 101st Ill. Inf.; L. Goheen, Co. C, 117th Ill. Inf.; Gates Strown, Co. A Beautiful Field—

When planted with a Van Brunt Drill, a field of grain presents a pleasing sight to the eye during its growth because of the remarkably even stand. This is due to three qualities of Van Brunt seeding: First, uniform distribution of quantities from every feed; second, even flow of seed to avoid gaps in each furrow; third, planting and covering all seed at the same depth.

MCKINLEY WILL VISIT CITY NEXT SATURDAY

Congressman Will Discuss Economic Problems This Country Must Solve—Recognized as One of Country's Foremost Financiers.

Jacksonville people are deeply interested in the coming of Congressman William B. McKinley of Chautauqua, who will be the speaker at Saturday afternoon's session of the Chautauqua. Mr. McKinley will discuss as a business man economic problems and with no flow of oratory, the economic problems which America must now solve and those who have heard him say he has a keener grasp of the situation than any man in Illinois. This is no doubt due to his career as a financier and businessman and his fourteen years in congress as representative of the Chautauqua district.

It is said of Mr. McKinley that he lays the problems facing the people of America before his auditors in such plain language and convincing manner that even boys not yet out of high school grasp what he is saying and also that the man who has not given serious thought to his country's present plight is sent home thinking

Mr. McKinley is recognized as one of the country's foremost financiers as well as statesmen. As is well known it was his brain which conceived and brought into being the great McKinley system of interurbans, the most extensive in the United States and it was this same man who spanned the Mississippi river with the McKinley bridge at St. Louis, the largest electric bridge in the world.

Mr. McKinley's coming at this time brings double interest the fact that he is being pressed by Republicans in all parts of the state to become a candidate for Hon. L. T. Sherman's toga in the United States senate. He has not yet announced that he will not enter the race but it is a fact that he is a man with wide popularity.

It is conceded that if there were ever a time in the country's hisory when business men were needed down at Washington it is now. Mr. McKinley proved himself a man of rare business judgment long before his constituents chose him as their representative and his record of fourteen years in Washington has proved him one of the nation's most careful law makers for he has talked little, has done much and has done it with the brain of a careful business man. The Chautauqua district has indeed been fortunate to be able to avail itself of such services as Mr. McKinley has been able to offer.

No doubt one of the largest audiences of the chautauqua period will be out to hear Mr. McKinley Saturday afternoon. He already counts his friends by the hundreds in Jacksonville and Morgan county.

HIGH COST OF LIVING THREATENS MOVIE GAME

Gigantic Trusts Formed That Threatens to Boost Prices Twenty-five to Five Hundred Percent—Local Managers Do Not Comment on Situation.

Step forward, movie fans and meet Mr. High Cost of Living. The gentleman is about to make his entry into the moving picture game. When he does the movies, once the popular form of recreation and amusement for the masses will advance to the list of luxuries.

You ask what the reason is? Well, it is because the capitalists are forming combinations the like of which were never dreamed of before. When the trust gets to working, unless the independent makers of pictures can supply the immense demand for films in cities the size of Jacksonville and smaller, the price is going to advance from 25 to 500 per cent.

Will Increase Prices. It may not sound big to talk of 500 per cent increases. But it means this. If the local picture theaters get the big stars now playing with the big producers they must raise their prices. This raise would mean prices for pictures around fifty cents and may be seventy cents or a dollar if the local theater managers want to keep from going bankrupt.

Prices like this will mean only one thing. If the local theaters are compelled to take the trust pictures and pay the prices that it is rumored will be asked, then they will not be open every day in the week. The uninitiated might ask why. The reason is obvious.

There is only so much money to be spent for amusements. With prices at five, ten and fifteen cents with an occasional twenty or twenty-five cent admission the money which the public spent for pictures lasted longer and could be spread over a period of a week. With the prices boosted to more than twice the old rate it would mean that two or three pictures a week would take all of the amusement money and the theaters would play to half houses and empty seats the remainder of the time. The alternative would be to close half of the week which probably would be what would happen.

Is Gigantic Merger. A short time ago the Associated Press carried a small story of the combination of the Goldwyn Film company with Al Woods and the Shuberts. The capital stock of the company was increased from three to twenty million dollars.

This gigantic merger will control directly by ownership and lease ninety-one theaters in the largest cities of the country. When it is considered the many theaters it controls by booking agencies it may readily be seen what a power it will wield.

Of almost equal importance to this big combine is the Paramount company of which Adolph Zukor is the head. This concern controls all of the theaters in the principal cities of the south, known as the Lynch chain of theaters. In addition to this chain of theaters Allen Brothers, big people in the picture game, have joined the Paramount forces.

The Stanley company is a third link in the combination of movies and controls the Philadelphia theaters and a chain of theaters thru New England. Recently Zukor of the Paramount company purchased a half interest in the Stanley corporation and thus obtains control of theaters in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Maryland.

Salvation Lies in Independents. Opposed to the gigantic combination is the independent producer. To these independents the majority of the movie theater managers must look to for relief.

The leading independent producers are Universal, W. H. Hodgkinson, Mutual, Robinson-Cole and a number of others of more or less note. Then there is the big triple combination, Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and Charlie Chaplin who make their own pictures and also market them.

A big concern is the First National which controls theaters in the larger cities from coast to coast. This company does not make pictures but is in the market to buy them and releases them thru their exchanges.

Local Managers Sitting Tight. Local theater owners do not have anything to say but are merely sitting tight and waiting to see what happens. There is a well defined rumor that prices will be raised about September 1. Just what local managers will do cannot be stated until the crises comes.

One of the sad commentaries of the present combination is the fact that the ring leaders were once against the trust. Now, however, they are following in the footsteps of the organization they helped to crush. It remains to be seen whether or not the same fate befalls their efforts.

To an outsider it looks like they are killing the goose that laid the golden egg. The wonderful growth and popularity of the movies has been their price. This has built up a clientele that never could have been accomplished with higher prices.

Union men should see our line of union made shirts, in our shirt window this week. T. M. Tomlinson.

BRETZ WILL MEET PROPERTY OWNERS

Meeting with East State Property Owners Will Be Held in Council Chamber this Evening at Eight o'clock.

A meeting of the property owners of East State street with John E. Bretz to discuss the question of the paving in that street will be held in the council chamber this evening at 8 o'clock.

It was intended to hold the meeting last night but Mr. Bretz, who was here yesterday, had arranged to return to Springfield by way of Ashland to inspect some state road work he is doing and was unable to remain over.

However, he agreed with Mayor Crabtree to return here today and will arrange to stay over for the meeting tonight. The paving of East State street has been up in the air for several months and it is hoped that by getting the property owners and Mr. Bretz together that some of the contentions can be ironed out and some understanding reached.

The consensus of opinion of a majority of the property owners at a recent meeting seemed to be that a good foundation was most essential if a satisfactory job was secured. This matter will be taken up with Mr. Bretz and Engineer Henderson has prepared an estimate for doing certain work which will be discussed.

In his conversation with Mr. Crabtree yesterday, Mr. Bretz talked fairly about the matter. He said he was not trying to evade his contract, despite the fact that he had lost several thousand dollars in the work he had done here so far. He indicated a willingness to meet the property owners and city half way and try to reach some definite and satisfactory understanding.

Dr. T. O. Hardesty, returned from service, will be found at 336 West State St. Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 5, daily.

Coated Tongue What it Means

A bad breath, coated tongue, bloat in the mouth, languor and debility are usual signs of the liver out of order. Prof. H. M. Pierce says "The liver is an organ of secondary importance only to the heart."

We can manufacture poisons within our own bodies which are deadly as a snake's venom.

The liver acts as a guard over the blood, filtering out the poisons and the general circulation.

A blockade in the intestines is a heavy burden upon the liver.

The intestines are choked or clogged, the circulation of the blood becomes poisoned and the system becomes loaded with toxic waste.

As we suffer from headache, yellow coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, nausea, or gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow eyes, At such times one should use castor oil or a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of Mistletoe, leaves of aloe and jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly fifty years ago, a

Order Your Hudson Now For Later Delivery

Buyers Know the Advantages of Anticipating Their Wants With This the Largest Selling FINE CAR

Constantly for four years Super-Six sales have exceeded those of any other fine car. Buyers have had to wait a month or more during the selling season before they could get delivery. On some models, at this writing, we are far behind orders. Yet factory production was never as large.

Thousands are driving less desirable cars that were accepted because they could not get delivery of a Hudson. Many frankly express their regret that they had not ordered a Hudson early enough to assure delivery in time to meet their needs.

Can There Be Any Hesitancy In Your Preference?

Four years have given universal recognition to the Super-Six. The patented principle in its motor, ended destructive engine vibration and added 72% to the power without increased weight or size. That motor was developed by Hudson and it is exclusively Hudson. In the present model are the refinements resulting from 60,000 cars in service.

And then there are its official records of the most trying tests. No other car ever so established itself.

Some, at first, may have doubted the value of such proofs as were made on the speedway and in trans-continental racing so far as they relate to the type of car that would meet ordinary service. But no one now questions the importance of those records.

The fastest mile for a stock chassis was not established as a mark for Hudson owners to aim at. Nor was the twenty-four hour record of 1819 miles set as something that should be attempted by every Super-Six.

Likewise, Hudson racing cars did their part to prove the very qualities most desirable in an automobile used for individual transportation. The one most essential quality in an automobile is its reliability. No one ever questions Hudson's right to first place in that particular.

So, Too, Is Its Style Equally Distinct

The boulevards of the great cities show what is most wanted in body lines and general equipment. Can you find more beautiful cars anywhere than are the Hudsons?

They set the vogue. Hudsons forecast the trend of motor car design. As a result a one or two year old Hudson has the same general lines as the current models of most other makes.

There can be no disappointment over the beauty of the Super-Six, regardless of the model you select.

The Wisdom of Buying Now

With these evidences there any good reason why you should not now place your order for a Hudson? You know the car you will get. It merits your implicit confidence.

Think of the thousands who this year have had to forego the pleasure of owning a Hudson, just because they put off ordering. Vacation planned to be taken in touring in a Super-Six had to be changed.

All the world is crying for automobiles. The demand can not soon be filled.

Hudson, as the largest selling car, must as a matter of right continue the first choice. Only those who place their orders in advance of their needs can be sure of getting the car they want.

SUFFERED SINCE SHE WAS A CHILD

Mrs. May Praises Tanlac for Ending Long Standing Trouble—
"It's Wonderful." Declares Sioux Falls Woman.

The best evidence of the merits of a medicine is what people who have actually taken it have to say about it. And this is true and beyond all question when such statements are made by people of high character and published right in the community where each and every fact can be investigated and verified.

Mrs. Effie May, residing on R. F. D. No. 1, Box 99, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in relating her experience with Tanlac, recently said:

"I certainly can say a good word for Tanlac for it has really and truly made me feel like a new woman. I have had stomach trouble ever since I was fourteen years of age and as I grew older other troubles kept coming on me. I had rheumatism in my right arm so bad I couldn't sleep for the pain, and would do everything trying to get easy so I could get a little rest. My back hurt me so bad at times that I could hardly get up when sitting or laying down, and I would often have dizzy spells and nervous, sick headaches. At the time I began taking Tanlac I was suffering with an awful pain in my side, so bad at times as to almost take my breath, and was told I would have to be operated on for appendicitis. I was frantic with pain and nearly worried out of my wits, besides.

"Then I happened to read a testimonial from a Nebraska lady, who had gotten relief from the same kind of troubles by taking Tanlac and going on the idea that what's good for one is good for another I got a bottle. Well, it has helped me just like she said it did her and now I know for myself that it is wonderful. I don't get nervous any more nor have any more headaches, and the stomach trouble and rheumatism have disappeared, too. So Tanlac has not only relieved me of my physical suffering, but it has eased my mind, as well, for I fully believe it has saved me from an operation, as the pain is gone out of my side entirely. I am just feeling fine and my enthusiasm for Tanlac is unbounded."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Mercedosa by R. B. Field; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by the Wyle Drug Co., and in Woodstock by the Hay Pharmacy Co.

News Of Interest From Morgan County and Vicinity

FOURTH ANNUAL WHITE HALL CHAUTAUQUA GREAT SUCCESS

Sale of Guarantors Tickets Insures $3,000 Program for Next Year—Other News of White Hall and Vicinity.

White Hall, Aug. 25.—Farm activities during the past week have had an effect on the day attendance at the White Hall Chautauqua, but at night the attendance rolled up to the customary proportions. Corn is ripening in good shape, the roads are fine and the main highway thru the county north and south is being oiled. The car situation has shown some improvement in the matter of hauling wheat. The lengths to which shippers will go in order to get a car are remarkable. On Friday a freight conductor wired ahead to White Hall that he had a car containing fifty bales of wire, and he informed Agent Ballard of the Burlington, that if he and a shipper would transfer this wire into another car while the crew ate dinner at White Hall, they could have the car, as it was a good grain car. The shipper grabbed at the opportunity, saying that they would eat that much wire in order to get the car. All receipts of wheat are being taken care of, the reverse of conditions two weeks ago, when wagon after wagon load of wheat was sent back to the farms. Threshing operations are proceeding, with slight interruption by weather, to a conclusion.

Matrimonial Market Active
A couple from Hillview motored to White Hall Sunday morning and at 10 o'clock were married by Rev. E. M. Crabtree at his home. The principals are Herman C. Woldridge and Miss Dorothy M. Murray, daughter of T. E. Murray. The groom is in the employ of A. L. McClay, and they returned to Hillview to make their home. He is the son of E. M. Woldridge.

Frank Orten, Jr., and Miss Helen Goodall went to Carrollton Saturday by train, where they were married in the presence of the parents of the contracting parties, they being scarcely of age. The groom is the son of Frank Orten, Sr., and the bride a daughter of Harvey Goodall. They returned on the noon train. The marriage of Dr. C. D. Vosseller and Miss Maude Mer of LaPlata, Mo., occurred at Kansas City at 9 o'clock Saturday evening. They will reside in Kansas City, where the groom has decided to engage in the practice of osteopathy on September 2nd. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E.

Vosseller of White Hall, and previous to entering upon military service practiced his profession at Greenfield. He returned from France on April 1st, and has been convalescing here up to a short time ago. For six months previous to his return he was isolated with a casual company, No. 3, in France without a word from him, notwithstanding the herculean efforts of his parents to locate him.

Wedding Anniversary.
Saturday was the thirty-sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hyatt, and they observed the occasion in their customary quiet way at their home on West Franklin street. Mr. Hyatt has been in poor health for several years. In past years his name has been prominently identified with the horse fraternity of the country, and for a number of years was connected with Gregory Farm.

Gregory Farm Wins at State Fair
The new show herd of Percheron horses at Gregory Farm is maintaining the reputation of the establishment they represent and their great sire Carnot. It will be remembered that the former show herd was destroyed by fire two years ago when the main barn was destroyed and none were shown last year. When it was announced that Gregory Farm had developed a new show herd, much interest was aroused as to how they would perform. They were scheduled for the state fair circuit of the south and west, but the railroad situation did not permit this. They were shown at the Illinois state fair at Springfield last week with the following results: First on mare one year and under two, get of sire, and best stud, one stallion and three mares; second and sixth on stallion three years and under four; first on stallion one year and under two; first on brood mare ten years and over; junior and senior grand champion mares. Gregory Farm was also awarded second place on its entry of Berkshire hogs.

Stanton of the Right Sort
The recent visit of J. R. Stanton to his old home and his manifest interest in the library proposition has won the attention of General H. D. Hamilton of New York City, "daddy" of the present White Hall library. Under date of August 16th, General Hamilton writes: "I am in receipt of the Carrollton Gazette, which you were kind enough to send me, and am interested in the plans for the library. Jack Stanton is, and always was, the right sort. Sincerely yours, H. D. Hamilton." With the expressed interest of these two men in the project, something is going to happen. Stanton has become one of the biggest book publishers in the country, president of the Stanton & Van Vleet Publishing Co., of Chicago.

Leading Visitors of the Week.
There have been a number of interesting visitors during the past week, among whom are Attorney H. P. Lowenstein of Kansas City. They are coming more numerous with each session of the White Hall Chautauqua. W. A. Boehm was up from St. Louis for several days.

J. C. Schroeder left for Washington, D. C. Friday after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schroeder. He does not seem to know how he will fare with the change of administration in the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, but he has business connected with the railroad wage hearings.

Friday's visitors included H. M. Preston of Tulsa, Okla., an Jaestown, N. Y., who was the guest of W. S. Corsa. Mr. Preston is one of the original explorers and developers of the Tulsa oil field, and has built up an immense fortune from his operations. He relates that he went to Tulsa when there was very little to the town. It was raining when he arrived and it was so muddy that he borrowed a pair of rubbers from the depot agent in order to get up town. Recently he purchased what is known as the Prendergast estate near Jamestown, New York, and is devoting several thousands of dollars in improvements. He always makes it a point to call on Mr. Corsa when he is enroute through St. Louis. His previous visit was on the date of the county fair picnic last year. This year he unexpectedly ran into the chautauqua, and he thinks there is something doing every day down on Gregory Farm Park.

Representative C. E. Bolin of Milton, Pike county, was a leading personage among the visitors from Pike county.

H. L. Tanner of Galesburg, who joined his family here during the week, sang at the vesper service Sunday evening to the delight of his old home friends and musical admirers.

Two Deaths.
James M. Linder, an old resident of Greene county, died at 9:15 p. m. at his home in Patterson, nine miles northwest of White Hall. He was a victim of cancer of the stomach. He was engaged in the mercantile business for many years prior to his retirement because of failing health. He was nearly 83 years of age.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Monday, and the burial was in the Martin cemetery. James F. Moore, a victim of tuberculosis, died at his home in the east part of town early Friday morning, and the burial was at Milton, Pike county, Sunday. He was 63 years of age. The family came here from Pike county about twelve years ago.

Chautauqua Becoming Permanent
The fourth annual White Hall Chautauqua is now community history, leaving in its wake a spirit of civic unselfishness that is far more commensurate than the labor and expense of conducting the enterprise. The closing program was held Sunday evening in the presence of a tremendous gathering, and was addressed by Dr. Aiken, Rockefeller's pastor. The session continued through eight days as usual, and the numbers were received with varying degrees of popularity, but that the numbers were all high class is a universal verdict. The opening program, heretofore reported in this paper, was not excelled for popularity all during the sessions. The leading features included Vincenzo De Santis, the Italian statesman, on Monday; Vitelli's Band and Elma B. Smith, the child impersonator, on Wednesday; Capt. Joe R. Hamer and the Philippine Orchestra on Thursday; and Stanley L. Krebs on Friday in a scientific demonstration of psychology.

The sale of guarantors' tickets for next year slightly exceeded 2,200, when only 2,000 is the limit, and this insures a $3,000 program next year. Of these sales the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts each subscribed for one hundred. On Friday afternoon James H. Shaw, the general superintendent, offered in the course of an address to be one of fifty to contribute fifty dollars toward the erection of a frame coliseum, but the idea now most favored is a steel and concrete structure that eliminates the hazard of fire. Then, too, the community high school is coming up for action right away with an auditorium feature that will have precedence for the time being.

Mrs. H. T. Rainey, of Carrollton, was a visitor on Saturday, and had a conference with the Girl Scouts. The Walnut Hill home has been the scene of some splendid receptions for the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts from White Hall. The immense auto traffic was handled without accident. Traffic police were stationed all along the road between Main street and the chautauqua grounds, and there were excellent parking regulations. All these matters were in charge of J. H. Fox, superintendent of grounds. It is recalled that there has been no serious accident to vehicles since the chautauqua began business. An instance of the happy spirit of good will, even among the keenest business rivals, is afforded by G. P. Manley, who did a jitney business along with his bus work. Just after noon Sunday the crowd was slow in getting to Main street, where the jitneys were in waiting, because of the late hour set for the program. Manley gathered up all the jitney drivers and took them on a tour of Main street, greatly delighting the witnesses and also the drivers. The only driver left out was Mrs. Mark Staples, who disputes Manley's claim that she was not in sight when the stunt came off.

Elect Directors.
The following directors were elected Sunday: W. S. Corsa, Louis Lowenstein, A. F. Ewert, J. H. Fox, G. C. Ruckel, Alonzo Ellis, Lorenzo Davis, Marcus North, C. E. Potts, J. H. Piper, T. N. Rose, J. C. Spencer, George A. Rafferty, H. W. Chirley, H. O. Tunison and R. G. Smith. The directors will retain Louis Lowenstein as president and A. F. Ewert as platform manager. The cash receipts at the gate during the week were $1,135. The new well and watering facilities proved to be a grand addition, and the next move will be to improve the sanitary facilities. The coliseum project, however, holds a commanding place.

All the facilities were left intact for the accommodation of the Greene County Farm Bureau picnic on Tuesday, when it was expected that there would be another big gathering.

The Lure of the Open Road

A MAN who owns a motor car—be it a big, luxurious limousine or only a little flivver, has at command the means of satisfying one of his most primitive instincts, a desire to fare forth like a true adventurer and enjoy the freedom of the open country.

Accompanied by his family or his friends, he, like the Argonauts, can start a little journey into unfamiliar places.

He need have no fear of consequences, for the modern automobile is a sturdy, dependable friend. All it asks is gasoline, a little lubricating oil, and water. With this it goes up hill and down, without fret or worry.

The wayside brook, or the well on a friendly farm supplies the water, while gasoline and oil may be had anywhere from the Service Stations of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The splendid system of distribution organized and maintained by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) covers every city, town, and hamlet, and in many cases there is a tank and pump beside the little store at the fork of the roads.

This complete distribution of its products is one of the chief services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to the motorists of America, yet it represents but one of the many benefits derived by the public at large from the operation of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant.

FORD'S SIMPLIFIED BIBLE STORIES

From Life.

David and the Goliath. David was a shepherd boy. Nearby lived the giant Goliath, foremost exponent of militarism of his day. Without any preliminary preparation, David left his flock and went forth and knocked Goliath for a goal in less time than it took the United States and the allies, with all their preparation, to overthrow German militarism. Let the militarists deny this at their peril. Come Edsel.

Moses in the Bulrushes. Little Moses was a tiny tot when Pharaoh's daughter found him alone, but uninjured, among the bulrushes. The child had evidently been hurried from a skidding car on the nearby Karnak turnpike. Skidding is always dangerous and entirely unnecessary. The story of Moses is a lesson to all. Always slow down at the turns. It will no longer do to rely upon Pharaoh's daughter to save the little ones. Pharaoh's daughter, we regret, to announce, is dead.

KEPT AT HOME

Henry Ford told the jury that he kept his son out of the war. In doing this, he admitted that he deprived his son of one of the greatest opportunities of his life. And so was many another boy deprived who, but for the blindness or the selfishness of parents, would have gone with his fellows. Mr. Ford "takes full responsibility." It is an empty phrase. He can never make up to his boy what he has taken from him.

Every man who put on the uniform earned the respect, the admiration, the undying gratitude of his countrymen. For he submitted himself to discipline; he put his life at the disposal of his country. The man who has grieved because he did not have the opportunity to go overseas shares in our gratitude. Whether his work was training men who did go over, or spending his time at a desk over figures or taking care of horses, he was doing what his superior judged would best serve his country. He was a man and his country is proud of him.

MYSTERIOUS LAKE POOPO.

From the River Plate Observer. Lake Poopo in Western Bolivia is of fresh water and thirty by forty miles in area. A steamboat service connects Poopo station with Lake Titicaca. The boats are of British construction, and, like so many heavy things one meets with in those regions, are said to have been carried by the Indians piecemeal from the coast.

Lake Poopo is one of the mysteries of the world, as although 212,000 cubic feet of water enter the lake by the River Desagadero per minute, there is no visible outlet and only two thousand are lost by evaporation; the common theory is that there is an underground passage to the sea, which is the probable explanation of the phenomenon.

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Society are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and snuff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tobacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bio-Feren is What You Need Right Away.

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and clear mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with nightly Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days rise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day or 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anaemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have it on hand—sell many packages.

MYSTERIOUS LAKE POOPO.

From the River Plate Observer. Lake Poopo in Western Bolivia is of fresh water and thirty by forty miles in area. A steamboat service connects Poopo station with Lake Titicaca. The boats are of British construction, and, like so many heavy things one meets with in those regions, are said to have been carried by the Indians piecemeal from the coast.

Lake Poopo is one of the mysteries of the world, as although 212,000 cubic feet of water enter the lake by the River Desagadero per minute, there is no visible outlet and only two thousand are lost by evaporation; the common theory is that there is an underground passage to the sea, which is the probable explanation of the phenomenon.

ATTACKS PALMER.
Washington, Aug. 25.—Attacking the administration of A. Mitchell Palmer, as alien property custodian, Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, in a speech in the report of the Senate Judiciary committee recommending confirmation of Mr. Palmer's nomination as attorney general as a "white wash."

Mrs. A. R. Smith of Vicksburg, Miss., is visiting in the city for a few days.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The oil fields of Oklahoma are suffering from lack of water. Especially is that true of the Beggs pool, which is bringing in producers of the gusher class each day. A good rain would mean much to operators, as new rigs are going up in all directions. Many wells are shut down awaiting water supply.

In and around the Beggs territory wells ranging from 1,000 to 2,000 barrels daily are being brought in in spite of water shortage. The last week there were several completions, which puts the pool in a rank with the good producers of the Texas fields.

The movement of copper in export channels is steadily increasing and further more it is well diversified among the countries which are users of the metal on a large scale in normal times. Up to the present, while there has been some export movement of copper, it has not been by any means commensurate with that which would be expected at this period of the year. Japan has bought some metal and the same is true of the Scandinavian countries, but until now the rest of the world has apparently been content to await developments before taking on commitments. Domestic demand which has been dull recently, is also picking up.

Marked advances in the price of Southern pine lumber has been a feature of the week in the building and construction industry.

There is a sharp division of opinion as to the legitimacy of prevailing lumber prices. Prices on southern pine and Douglas fir lumbars have doubled since May and many contractors are beginning to express suspicion that lumber prices are higher than economic conditions justify. Mill authorities assert, however, that demands are unprecedented, while stocks are depleted and labor essential to increased mill production unavailable. They do not hesitate to assert that present prices are lower than manufacturing costs would justify, and suggest that the end is not yet in soaring lumber prices. Advances in yellow pine prices recorded this week vary from $2.50 to $17 per thousand, the more pronounced advances being on flooring and drop siding.

In the first six months of the current year the railroads of the country under federal control earned almost 40 per cent of their standard return, compared with about 38 1/2 per cent in the corresponding 1918 period. Operating revenues in the period increased more than 13 per cent to $2,055,966,861, but operating expenses in creased almost 15 per cent to $2,056,720,484. In June the percentage of standard return earned by all of the roads was about 64, while the number of roads reporting deficits in that month was less than during the first half of the year. The actual number of deficits reported was 45, while 33 roads earned their standard return.

Wall Street Accepts Stand as Highly Favorable to Constructive Side of Finance—Liberal Buying Results.

New York, Aug. 26.—Trading on the stock exchange today was influenced by President Wilson's attitude toward the railroad shopmen and his survey of current problems arising from living costs, wages and attendant conditions. Wall Street accepted the president's stand as highly favorable to the constructive side of the finance and backed this belief by liberal buying of various issues.

Rails, outstanding features of the preceding day, were less in evidence being replaced in activity and strength by steels, equipments, motors, oils and food shares, at extreme gains of 2 to almost 15

WOMEN ARE GOING BOTH UP AND OUT

Local Dealers Have Catalogs Showing Heels of Shoes Getting Higher—At Same Time Corset Measurements Have Become Larger in Recent Years.

Women are going up and expanding.

That sounds shocking; why, people speak of blimps in such terms. But it is true. See here:

Two years ago the average fashionable shoes were one and a half to one and seven-eighths inches high at the heel. This summer they are two inches high. And in the latest catalog of a famous shoe firm in Lynn, Massachusetts, received by a local dealer in this city, the feature shoe and the one which they are selling the most of to the shoe stores, is two and a quarter inches high at the heel. Are women going up? We say so.

Twenty years ago no woman would buy a corset corset more than 18 inches in size. Local stores bought more of that size than any other. Women were ashamed to ask for a larger. Today that size has been abolished. The sizes sold the most range from 22 to 25 and no woman is ashamed to ask for 27 if that is the size that fits her. So they are expanding also.

"Yes, women are getting very sensible in their choice of corsets and skirts," one merchant remarked. "When I went behind the counter 50 years ago they were wearing great round hoop skirts and very small waists. They continued to wear the waists for a long time."

"And in regard to the high skirts they are wearing these days," he continued, "I remember back in the time when the Suez canal was opened. The viceroy of Egypt gave a big celebration to the nations of Europe. Napoleon of France was unable to go so he sent his wife Eugenia to the function. Knowing that the long skirts used in France at that time would be bunglesome in a place where she would have to do much walking about, she had her skirts made very short for that particular journey. In America at that time the mode was long skirts with voluminous foldings. We usually sold 12 yard of the yard goods for a skirt. But the example of Eugenia became a style all over France and America and it was not long before we were cut down from 12 yards to 8 yards as the amount of goods necessary to make up a skirt."

"Now, the present vogue of high skirts came about in much the same way. When t he war came on the women of France found that their long skirts were in the way in their hospital work and manufacturing. So they adopted the short skirt as a war measure. America will follow."

ALVIN YORK TO LECTURE.

War Hero Will Obtain Funds for a College for Mountaineers.

Karl K. Kitchen in the Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

New York—A good many stories have been written about Sergt. Alvin York, the Tennessee mountaineer who bagged 130 odd Germans after killing off at least a score, but here is one that has not found its way into print until now.

Lieutenant Colonel Buxton of the same regiment in which York was a sergeant related to the writer.

When Sergeant York was informed that his great feat was about to be "written up" in a weekly magazine, Lieutenant Colonel Buxton asked him how he felt about the publicity.

"Oh, I don't mind," he replied modestly. "None of the folks at my home read that magazine. I don't believe I've ever seen a copy. If I could have a little story in the Christian Advocate I'd like it right well. My folks get that paper every week, regular."

Now Sergeant York has succumbed to the lure of the lecture platform. However, the exploitation of this hero will be camouflaged under the auspices of a committee that is raising funds for a college of mountaineers.

HYPNOTIST SUES FOR FEE.

Woman Asks Millionaire to Pay Her $37,500 in Oil Royalty.

From Chicago Herald-Examiner. Petersburg, Ind. — Hypnotism, oil wells and fast finances figure in a novel suit filed in the local circuit court by Mrs. Minnie N. Herstman of this city and Horace Willey of Mount Carmel, Ill.

The Strong Vigorous Man is Supreme against W. B. Bement, a millionaire oil operator of Terra Haute.

Mrs. Herstman says she is a hypnotist, with mesmeristic power over Willey. In July, 1917, she alleges, Bement was engaged in leasing oil and gas lands in Pike

County, Indiana. By an arrangement with him Mrs. Herstman hypnotized Willey, who, under the influence, revealed locations of valuable oil wells. For this Mrs. Herstman and Willey were to get a one-sixteenth share of the oil and gas produced from Willey's "hypnotic lands." Mrs. Herstman charged that such oils and gas were produced in large quantities that Bement developed the prospects, later selling half of his interest for $600,000, but that neither she nor Willey got their share.
